WRITER | DIRECTOR | PRODUCER

JUDI LEWINSON (JudiLew) is a multi-talented woman whose resumé includes an Emmy nominated television series and a Peabody award winning film. As a writer, director, producer, author and multi-faceted entertainer, JudiLew continues to enjoy an adventure filled career, packed with eclectic projects all over the world. The varied nature of her work coupled with an unwavering commitment to excellence serves as a testament to her love of entertaining and delivering premier content. From her production company, VANGRIOT's (pronounced VAN-gree-OH) in-house produced endeavours to next-level collaborations and client driven opportunities, JudiLew has been privileged to make a significant impression within Hollywood's elite circles, political arenas and the private sector. Her works are as diverse as her interests.

JudiLew strongly believes she must use her voice in the entertainment industry to not only entertain, but to also tell our stories and give a creative voice to the narratives often left in the shadows of the collective conversation. As a woman of Jamaican heritage, Judi Lewinson proudly embraces the country's motto, "Out of Many, One People" and seeks to tell diverse and incredible stories that highlight our multi-cultural world while celebrating the universal strength of the human spirit.

Judi Lewinson lives in Metro-Vancouver, Canada. When she's not working on creative projects, she enjoys deejaying & remixing music.
